

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of the club shall be: Texas Rovers Club and shall be referred to in these By-laws as the CLUB.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSES

1. The main purposes for which the CLUB is formed are:
 - (a) to foster and promote the interests of those individuals who find recreation and enjoyment in driving their Land Rover vehicles in legal and authorized Off Road Areas in Texas and the United States;
 - (b) to bring together Land Rover owners of this region for camaraderie in group activities,
 - (c) to exchange information of special interest,
 - (d) to develop off-road driving skills in a safe and legal manner, and
 - (e) to act together toward the preservation of the wilderness character of our approved off-road areas by advancing public relations with governmental agencies and the public in general.
2. The CLUB is not formed for financial gain and no part of the assets or income of the CLUB will be distributed to or for the personal benefit of its Officers or members.

ARTICLE III – BASIC POLICIES

1. The CLUB shall cooperate with other organizations to support the preservation and improvement of designated off-road vehicle areas.
2. The CLUB shall cooperate with other organizations and agencies concerned with designated off-road vehicle areas but before any commitment made by any person shall be binding upon the CLUB, such a commitment must be approved by a majority of the Club's members.
3. The CLUB may sanction one or more regional Chapters, which shall consist of at least five (5) members in each region. The Dallas Chapter is the founding chapter of the CLUB. The CLUB's members shall approve additional regional chapters. The President, Treasurer, and Membership Secretary as elected CLUB officers shall provide CLUB leadership and central management of shared regional administrative functions, such as CLUB treasury, website hosting, etc.

ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP & DUES

1. Any individual who subscribes to the purposes and basic policies of the CLUB may become a member of the CLUB subject to compliance with provisions of these By-laws. Membership in the CLUB shall be available to any Land Rover owner interested, without regard to race, color, creed, sex or national origin. Membership in the CLUB shall entitle each member to participate fully in all CLUB functions and activities. Persons residing in the same residence shall be entitled to a family membership and are also eligible to participate fully in all CLUB functions and activities. The membership family head shall be entitled to one vote and one t-shirt. For an additional cost, membership t-shirts are available to all family members. Members shall designate their regional Chapter affiliation at the time of their application.

2. The CLUB shall conduct enrollment of members at any time. Members understand and accept the fact that off-road driving exposes the member, the member's vehicle and any occupants in the member's vehicle to risk of injury or damage. Members understand that while there is no legal duty for the member to provide assistance to another member, any such assistance rendered is done so without fear of legal repercussions or ramifications and will be provided to the member's best ability. Members understand and accept the fact that as a member, they waive for themselves and for anyone else claiming through themselves, their right to sue Texas Rovers Club, its Officers, trip coordinators, leaders, or any fellow members for any injuries to their person, to other occupants of the member's vehicle or damage to the member's vehicle which may occur during, in preparation for, or in transit to a CLUB outing or Chapter meeting.
3. Only members in good standing of the CLUB shall be eligible to participate in its business meetings, or to serve in any of its elective or appointive positions.
4. Members may bring guests to CLUB events for the primary purpose of learning more about the CLUB and consider if they want to join. Guest status is not to be considered as a way to attend many CLUB events without becoming a member.
5. Membership dues shall be set annually by the CLUB officers with approval by a majority vote of combined chapter membership. Membership dues shall be due and payable on or before the anniversary month of membership. A 30- day grace period can be applied in the event a member fails to renew, if however the member does not renew during this grace period their membership will expire and they have to rejoin the Club as a new member with subsequent loss of seniority. Membership dues shall be initially set at $40.00 for individual or family memberships who are resident in Texas. Out of state residents may join the club for $25.00 annually, however this membership level does not have voting privileges. Only the membership family head shall be considered a voting member of any subsequent club memberships as a result of membership in the CLUB and only one copy of any email or CLUB communication shall be sent to each voting member. In cases where a family member wishes to have all membership benefits and be listed as a voting member, they may do so and pay the current membership fee for full membership.
6. Membership dues shall be held in the CLUB treasury and shall be allocated primarily to management of the shared regional administrative functions by the CLUB Treasurer, and secondarily to each member's designated regional Chapter functions and activities, in a manner determined by the CLUB's Officers.

ARTICLE V – OFFICERS AND THEIR ELECTION

1. The CLUB Officers to be elected shall be: President, Treasurer and Membership Secretary. Each regional Chapter shall elect a Vice-president and an Events Coordinator. If the need arises for any other officer, any member may make the suggestion to be voted upon by the members present and confirmed by the Club Officers.
